30-Minute Phone Session

Price: $80.00

What is a 30-minute channeling session with Karen like?

On a budget? Don't think you have enough questions for a full hour session with Karen? The 30-minute session may be a good option for you. Believe it or not, there's a lot that can be packed into 30 minutes: Karen is a warm, accurate, and fast channel. Answering 4-5 questions in one 30-minute session, depending on the level of detail Michael goes into for your answer, is a very real possibility.

What can you expect from a 30-minute channeling session with Karen?

Phone sessions are much like having a conversation directly with causal-plane entity Michael. Karen can assist in guiding you to asking just the right questions so as to elicit specific and pertinent responses, but otherwise your session is between you and Michael, with a true conversational quality. In addition, the energy work they do with you during and after your session can be as deeply profound and transforming as the session itself.

All telephone sessions are recorded; you'll receive an audio file in mp3 format which you can burn to a CD if you wish.

Karen is able to accommodate almost any schedule; upon placing an order for your session you'll be in contact with Karen to complete booking your personal session time.
